1. Introduction

The Office of the Ombud for Financial Services Providers (“FAIS Ombud”) is a statutory body established in terms of Chapter VI of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, Act No. 37 of 2002.

1.1 Purpose

This document constitutes the Office of the FAIS Ombud’s PAIA Manual and is compiled in accordance with section 14 of PAIA as amended by the POPIA, which gives effect to everyone’s Constitutional right to privacy and largely commenced on 1 July 2020. POPIA promotes the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies, including certain conditions to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA: -

- balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information by providing for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA;
- providing for the issuing of codes of conduct and
- providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and to provide for matters concerned therewith.

The purpose of this manual is to help you get access to information that the FAIS Ombud holds. The FAIS Ombud is required in terms of PAIA to make this manual available to you so you can see what type of information the FAIS Ombud has, as well as how you can request access to it.

3. Guide

The Information Regulator (South Africa) is an independent body established in terms of section 39 of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act 4 of 2013) POPIA. The Information Regulator is, amongst others, empowered to monitor and enforce compliance by public and private bodies with the provisions of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act 2 of 2000) (PAIA), and POPIA.

The Information Regulator has compiled the guide contemplated in Section 10 of PAIA. The guide contains such information as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA. Any enquiries regarding this guide should be directed to:

4. Notices (Section 14(1)(e) and 15(2))

Notice(s) in terms of PAIA:

At this stage, no notice(s) has/have been published by the Minister on the categories of information available without a person having to request access to information in terms of PAIA. However, certain records / information is freely available on our website.

5. Countries of operation

The FAIS Ombud operates in South Africa.

6. Information that does not require a formal request in terms of PAIA

Information that is publicly available:

- FAIS Ombud Determinations
- FAIS Ombud Annual Report
- Advertising and awarding of tenders
- Press releases

7. How to request access

In order to comply with all requests in terms of PAIA and all enquiries in terms of POPIA, the FAIS Ombud have authorised and designated the FAIS Ombud Deputy Information Officers to deal with all matters relating to PAIA and POPIA.

In order to request access to a record, please complete the Request for Access Form, which is available at www.faisombud.co.za or <https://inforegulator.org.za>, and submit it to the FAIS Ombud at its physical address or via the contact details provided above. A copy of the form is attached as Annexure 1.

Remember to indicate the following on the form:

- Form of access required;
- Identify the right you want to exercise or protect and give an explanation why the record is needed for that purpose;
- Specify a postal address or fax number in South Africa or an e-mail address;
- Proof of the capacity in which you are acting, if requesting access on behalf of a third party.

8. Provision to grant or refuse access

In terms of records that may be requested, the mere fact that the information of the FAIS Ombud is listed in the Manual does not mean that the information will be made available. The FAIS Ombud in terms of Part 2 Chapter 4 of PAIA, has the right to refuse a request for information should any of the grounds of refusal as set out in Chapter 4 of the PAIA, exist.

For instance, we may have to refuse you access to certain records in terms of PAIA to protect—

- someone else's privacy;
- the FAIS Ombud's confidential information;
- certain records of the South African Revenue Service;
- Information that by agreement between the FAIS Ombud and a third party, is confidential (for example the content of a confidential agreement);
- another company's personal, commercial, or confidential information;
- someone else's confidential information;
- the safety of individuals and property;
- economic interests and financial welfare of the Republic and commercial activities of the FAIS Ombud;
- records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- research information;
- manifestly frivolous or vexatious requests, or substantial and unreasonable diversion of resources;
- operations of the FAIS Ombud, or
- commercial activities of the FAIS Ombud, which may include trade secrets, intellectual property, proprietary information, financial information, commercial information, or technical information which disclosure would likely cause harm to the business interests of the FAIS Ombud.

You will be notified in writing whether your request has been approved or denied within 30 calendar days after we have received a completed Request for Access Form.

Should any record of the FAIS Ombud requested by you not be found or not exist, the FAIS Ombud will, by way of an affidavit, notify you that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.

If your request for access to records of the FAIS Ombud is approved, the FAIS Ombud will determine how it will provide access to you, unless you have requested access in a specific form or format.

9. Remedies available when the FAIS Ombud refuses a request for information

9.1 Internal remedies

The FAIS Ombud does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

9.2 External remedies

A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court, or another court of similar status.

10. Information subject to POPIA

POPIA requires us to provide you with certain information relating to how personal information that we process is, amongst others, used, disclosed, and destroyed. We have set out the required information below.

10.1 Information on how you can request your personal information under POPIA

Requests for personal information under POPIA must be made in accordance with the provisions of PAIA.

If we provide you with your personal information, you have the right to request the correction, deletion, or destruction of your personal information, in the prescribed form. You may also object to the processing of your personal information in the prescribed form.

We have attached the prescribed forms to this Manual for your convenience.

We will give you a written estimate of the fee for providing you with your personal information, before providing you with the services. We may also require you to provide us with a deposit for all or part of the fee prior to giving you the requested personal information.

10.2 Purpose of processing

POPIA provides that personal information may only be processed lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe your (the data subject's) privacy. The type of personal information that we process will depend on the purpose for which it is collected. We will disclose to you why the personal information is being collected and will process the personal information for that purpose only.

11.3 Other information as may be prescribed

The FAIS Ombud will make available any other information as prescribed by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development in terms of the regulations of the PAIA, subject to the provision to grant or refuse access detailed under Section 8.

12. Cost to obtain information

Section 15 (3) states that fees payable for access to records are to be prescribed. The prescribed fees are as set out in the Fee Schedule – Annexure 2.

If the search for a record of the FAIS Ombud has been made by a requester and if the preparation of the record for disclosure would, in the opinion of the Information Officer of the FAIS Ombud, require more than the prescribed hour for this purpose for requesters, the Information Officer will by notice require the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion (being not be more than one third) of the access fee which will be payable if the request is granted, as determined in Section 22(2) of PAIA.

13. Processing personal information

In terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (“the POPIA”), the FAIS Ombud is required to detail how and what personal information it processes. The details of these are available on the FAIS Ombud website under the Website POPIA Policy.

The FAIS Ombud does not plan to transfer personal information across borders out of SA, but it may do so to secure or backup the data, or for technical reasons. The nature of cloud computing means that some data may be transferred across borders. Where it is within the FAIS Ombud’s control, it will only transfer data to other countries who have similar privacy and data protection laws as our own.

14. Information security

The FAIS Ombud is committed to ensuring that your personal information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure to such information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.

We secure our data by maintaining reasonable measures to protect personal information from loss or misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. We also take reasonable steps to keep personal information accurate, current, complete, and reliable for its intended use.

15. Objection

POPIA provides that a data subject may object, at any time, to the processing of personal information by the FAIS Ombud, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Annexure 4 - FORM 1 - Objection to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3) of POPIA Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 2] and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above.

16. Correction

A data subject may also request the FAIS Ombud to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that the FAIS Ombud is no longer authorised to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above on the form attached hereto as Annexure 5 - FORM 2 - Request for correction or deletion of personal information or destroying or deletion of record of personal information in terms of section 24(1) of POPIA's Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 3]

17. Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required to authenticate your identity and the request. You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

18. Updates to this manual (Section 14(2))

This Manual will be updated and amended from time to time.

19. Legislative and regulatory framework

This Manual should be read in conjunction with the following legislative framework:

- Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000;
- Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2014.
- South African Human Rights Commissions Act of 2013

20. Availability of the manual

This manual is made available in terms of Regulation 4 of PAIA. The FAIS Ombud's manual will also be available on its website <https://faisombud.co.za/> as well as at the FAIS Ombud's physical offices.
